VOLUME CVI.--NO. 264. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity, It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1903 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GRAVE CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA.

The revolt in Russia becomes more complex daily in its political ramification and a fear is expressed that Count Witte will be unable to bring order out of chaos.

Of the 6,000 persons wounded in the Odessa riots, 964 are dead, and the merchants are in dread of bankruptcy.

Disorders are reported from many quarters where Jews are not the only victims.

The government continues to issue appeals for confidence.

Because Russia resented the Kischeneff petition of 1903 as interference, President Roosevelt is unable to take any steps in behalf of the persecuted Jews.

The success of the Finnish movement has led to a revival of the struggle for autonomy in Poland.

A bomb thrown at Novo Georgievskoye, Russia, killed the commander of the fortress and wounded his family.

William T. Stead suggests that American warships be sent to St. Petersburg as a refuge for Americans in case of necessity.

The news from the interior shows that there has been little improvement in the situation. In some places disorders have broken out again with redoubled fury. The horrible story of massacre at Odessa is not fully known. In the Caucasus the Tartars and Russians are cutting each others throats and the Armenians are giving themselves up to pillage and incendiarism.

From Bachmut, in Bessarabia, comes an entirely new revolting tale. A three days' attack on the Jews began Thursday, with every indication of police organization. Jewish students were beaten, the Jewish stores in the markets were sacked during the day and at night the plunder of residences commenced. Troops arrived on the scene, but the following day the work of pillage was resumed before the eyes of the soldiers and police. The prayers of the hunted Jews for mercy were unvailing.

Toward noon the torch was applied to stores and houses. The police would not permit the Jews to fight the fire and the troops were withdrawn. Then the pillage began afresh. It was temporarily stopped Saturday morning through the efforts of the Russian peasants, but the police spread false reports which aroused the mob, and there was a renewal of of the work of plunder and massacre. The losses ase said to be nearly a million of dollars.

A telephone message from Moscow received in St. Petersburg says the Jews are terror-stricken with fear of a massacre there. Many of them have abandoned their lodgings and are sleeping in the houses of friends.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail says: "War, hopeless war, prevails in the Caucasus. The Trans-Caucasian Railway, the sole line, is effectually crippled and re-enforcements have been compelled to march. Seventeen bridges have been wrecked and the rails have been torn up in forty places. Telegraph lines have been destroyed and Georgia and Daghestan are isolated. Every male is in arms and the war office is helpless."

The Bucharest correspondent of the London Daily Mail sends the following: "There is terrifying news still from Kishenef. The city is strewn with dead. An unweildy provisional government has been established. Famine reigns throughout Bessarabia and the Jews are taking refuge in the cellars, where they are dying wholesale. A mob of a thousand rioters engaged in a massacre of Jews in Ismaili, Bessarabia, and a force of dragoons from Bendary fired on the mob, killing forty-two and wounding 114 persons. The Bessarabian revolt is assuming immense proportions.

Unclean Money.

"The Record" accepts advertisements as a common carrier accepts freights, at current rates of service, making no discrimination among its customers.

Because of this fact certain space in our advertising columns has been sold to "the gang" who very shrewdly conceived that the columns of this journal afforded an open gateway into reputable and influential quarters not otherwise readily approached.

In pursuance of "The Record's" policy of not discriminating against anyone it printed "the gang" advertisements. Yet "The Record" has qualms. The object of these paid for publications is so opposed to the public welfare, so obnoxious to the teachings of the press, the pulpit, the laws, and the well-settled beliefs of honest men of all parties that the money stinks in contact with the honest dollars in "The Record" treasury.

Unclean money can, however, serve a useful purpose, and in an effort to employ it in that direction "The Record" will turn over all of the money that may be received in payment of "the gang" advertisements to the Philadelphia Home for Incurables. It will probably be the best use to which the money of political pirates was ever devoted.

The Philadelphia Home for Incurables is an institution for the care of men, women and children afflicted with incurable diseases, and is supported by private funds, endowments and donations.—[Philadelphia Record.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 7, 1905.

THE SCENES in London yesterday, when thousands of women marched to Whitehall, that city, for the the purpose of making known their sad condition to Premier Balfour, is significant, and was another chapter in the short and simple annals of the poor. Cheerless winter has set in with a large percentage of the working people of the great metropolis without work, fuel or food. In the midst of a city of the greatest magnificence and sensuality, one can imagine a horde pinched by hungry and poorly clad, winding its way through the Strand with its many restaurants, pastry, cook shops, bakeries, &c., where tempting viands are spread in windows, engaged in a fruitless errand, some to return to crusts and garrets and others not even those to greet them. The Premier virtually said nothing that promised any immediate alleviation of the distress of his petitioners, and the latter left as cold, hungry and disheartened as before they had stated their case. The exclamations of some of the disappointed were significant. "Don't forget that hungry men are desperate men," said one of the speakers, who all had the some tale to tell of husbands out of work and starving wives and children. The pinched faces and tattered clothing of the women, some of whom had babies in their arms, bore eloquent testimony of the truth of their complaints. The "Marseillaise" was heard as the procession advanced, perhaps the first time it was ever heard under such circumstances in the streets of London. A mass-meeting of the women was held at 3 p. m. to hear the report of the delegation. Mr. Crooks, M. P., and others made speeches. Mr. Crooks said that Mr. Balfour's reply to the delegation was unworthy of the Premier of a great country. The mention of Mrs. Balfour's name was greered with a storm of hisses. Mr. Crooks added that they had started an agitation which would not cease until every man who wanted work was supplied with sufficient to support his wife and children. The speaker urged his hearers to continue the agitation. He said that a revolution in England would not be behind the revolution in Russia in securing the demands of the people. The meeting unanimously adopted a resolution to continue the fight for the employment of the unemployed, and the meeting broke up amid uproarious scenes and the singing of the "Marseillaise."

THERE IS every reason to believe another murder has been committed in Alexandria, the circumstances in connection with the death of Richard Mills, colored, in a house on north Fairfax street last Sunday evening pointing plainly to foul play. The police are endeavoring to unravel the mysterious circumstances in connection with the shooting of Mills, and it is hoped they will succeed, but the fact that nearly all persons summoned are negroes, out of whom it is difficult to obtain positive evidence, renders their task difficult. Should they succeed in tracing the crime to the perpetrator or perpetrators it will doubtless be the result of an accident. There has during recent years been a number of murders in and around this city, the victims being all colored, as have also been the perpetrators of the crimes, while murderous assaults have been common among the same element. It is believed that a large percentage of blacks hereabouts carry pistols or other deadly weapons and the use of such is becoming common. Recently there have been hold-ups in and near this city, which have caused apprehension, especially among females, who are often compelled to traverse unfrequented streets at night.

THE principal elections held today were in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland and Virginia and in many of the cities in New York and several other States. There are also sharp municipal contests in Indianapolis and San Francisco. In some places the voting has been conducted quietly, but in others troubles have been common incidents. Two murders were committed in Philadelphia this morning, while many minor disturbances have occurred. There is said to be considerable excitement in Kentucky and bloodshed is feared. It is hoped the day will not be disgraced in any part of Virginia by turmoils or unseemly conduct of any kind, but that all may vote as good citizens in an orderly manner, as has been done today in Alexandria.

THE CZAR knows his subjects better than do the people in this country. It is evident that even in the great cities of Russia, which are the centres of its civilization, there are large masses of the population who are no more fitted for self-government than our Sioux and Comanche Indians. The first use they make of the loosening of the restraining fetters of autocracy is to turn upon the helpless Jews with a fury of carnage, rapine and plundering that can only be paralleled in the annals of savagery, Truly, says the Philadelphia Record, Comanches could have done no worse.

MR. AND MRS. J. D. ROCKEFELLER attended church in New York Sunday, hearing a sermon condemnatory of bridge whist. This has become such an absorbing game, one which seems to make women oblivious to all sense of duty to family and home, that the preachers throughout the country are berating it.

IT'S ALL over, but the counting and the shouting.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.

U. S. Minister Rockhill, at Peking, has cabled to the State Department under today's date to the effect that he has received advices from the Viceroy of Canton saying that he had ordered the Magistrate at Yingtak to take extraordinary measures to protect the missionaries and missionary station there. Advices from there yesterday were to the effect that an attempt had been made by a Chinese mob to burn one of the mission buildings. The Magistrate in reply telegraphed that there was no sign of enmity among the people against the missionaries. He further stated that three missionaries had decided to go with their families to Canton and that they would be very carefully protected on the way.

The sub-committee of the advisory board of the Panama Canal Commission which has been preparing a report on the best method to be adopted in building the canal with locks has completed its work and submitted its report to the full board. The sub-committee which considered the best plans for the construction of the canal as a sea-level proposition made its report some time ago. The two reports are now under consideration by the full board of American and foreign advisory engineers who will hold daily sessions from now on to determine which type of canal they shall recommend as being the best for the United States to build, taking into consideration the cost, time of construction and other factors that enter into the problem. The report of the sub-committee on the lock canal makes recommendations as to the number of locks that would be needed to carry the canal at a height of thirty, sixty or ninety feet, but it is believed that it recommends, if a lock canal shall finally be decided upon, that it should not be elevated to a greater height than sixty feet. The report recommends where the necessary locks should be construced, indicates their size, probable cost and time necessary to build them.

The following changes in the consular service were announced at the State Department today: Wm. A. Prickitt, of New Jersey, has been transferred from the position of Consul at Rheims, France, to that of Consul General at Auckland, New Zealand, and J. Martin Miller, of New Jersey, has been appointed to Rheims as Consul. Wm. J. Pike, of Pennsylvania, consul at Zittau, Germany, has been transferred to be consul at Glauchau, Germany, and Wm. R. Estes, of Minnesota, consul at Solingen, is transferred to Zittau. Jas. W. Davidson, of Minnesota, has had a new commission issued to him as Consul, at Antung, China, in lieu of the one appointing him to Antung, Manchuria.

Spencer Eddy, the U. S. charge d'affaires at St. Petersburg, cabled to the State Department this morning that he has received a dispatch from U. S. Consular Agent Martin at Rostoff-on-Don to the effect that the disturbances there have quited down. Rostoff was one of the places from which advices came yesterday that rioting and mob violence had reached such a pitch that the American residents has had to appeal to the authorities for protection which was granted them.

Announcement is made at the State Department today that the President will receive the British Ambassador and members of the Royal Commission on the care and control of the feeble minded tomorrow at noon.

Attorney General Moody will confer in this city Thursday with U. S. District Attorney Morrison and Assistant District Attorney Pagan, of Chicago, as to the next steps to be taken by the government in the prosecutions against the beef trusts. Conference will no doubt determined whether or not the present action against the beef packers can be successfully maintained. The defendants have filed a plea, declaring that Commissioner of Corporations Garfield promised them immunity from prosecution when the permitted the bureau's inspections to have access to the packers books books, information from which they charge was turned over to the Department of Justice and now constitutes the basis of the governments case against them. It is for the purpose of discovering the extent of the understanding between the bureau of corporations and the packer that Thursday's conference will be held. It is understood that the District Attorney is not firmer in his convictions of the government's rights than Commissioner Garfield, the present action may have to be abandoned. It is believed, however, that before the District Attorney returns to Chicago the government's answer to the packers plea will have been fully outlined.

Walter G. Tubby, of St. Paul, now general storekeeper of the Great Northern Railroad, has been appointed by Chairman Shonts as chief of the division of supplies of the Isthmian Canal Commission, not superintendent of construction, as reported from St. Paul this morning. His headquarters will be at Cristobal, canal zone, and he succeeds Paymaster E. C. Tobey, U. S. N., who has been recalled by the Navy Department for service in the navy.

James W. Burgess, aged fifty-three, father of Lacy H. Burgess, city passenger agent for the Southern Railway, in Washington, died at Charlottesville, this morning, of apoplexy. While overheated he ate a big dinner yesterday afternoon. Acute indigestion was followed by paralysis and he never regained consciousness.

Mrs. Chadwick's Appeal Denied.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today denied the appeal of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, of Cleveland, the female wizard of finance, for the remission of the sentence of ten years imprisonment imposed on her by the United States court in Cleveland. The lower court was sustained.

Mitchell, against whom charges of unsoundness in doctrine were sustained last week by the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was removed from the faculty of the university, with which he has been connected for 20 years as professor of Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis.

With the assistance of the mighty power of a rising tide, the north approach span of the new double decked bridge across the Harlem ship canal in New York was moved into place yesterday afternoon and the old span taken out entire. It was one of the most delicate engineering feats ever attempted in New York, and the carefully laid plans of the engineers went through without a hitch.

At a dark and secluded spot on Twenty-fourth street northwest Washington, Miss Josephine Madigan, twenty-five years of age, was held up between 7 and 8 o'clock last night, brutally beaten and robbed of her hand satchel, which contained $6 in money and a pair of gold-rimmed eyeglasses. The assault occurred only a few feet from Miss Madigan's home, which is at 711 Twenty-fourth street. The highwayman escaped.

Murder and Suicide.

Milton Franklin Andrews, the murderer of Bessie Bouton, near Colorado Springs, and who tried to kill W. C. Ellis, an Australian horseman, in Berkeley, October 11, last night killed his female companion, Hulda P. Olivia, and committed suicide in public on Franklyn street, San Francisco. For nearly four weeks the police have been searching for traces of Andrews and his companion, who disappeared on the very day that they tried to kill Ellis. They lured Ellis to a house and Andrews hit him over the head while he was eating lunch. Ellis managed to escape and warned the police, but before they reached the house Andrews and the woman had fled. Andrews was passing under the name of Brush, but the notoriety caused by this crime led to his identification as the murderer of Bessie Bouton. Andrews and Hilda Olivia crossed the bay to San Francisco and went to a house which they had engaged beforehand. As both their pictures had been printed, it is supposed that fear of being recognized and arrested led to the killing of the woman and Andrews' suicide.

Suit Shows Marriage Between Two Women.

A suit entered in the District Court in Colorado Springs, Col., by Mrs. Nellie B. Hewitt against Mrs. Columbia Robbins reveals a strange compact between two women which has not been dreamed of by the versatile modern novelist. Mrs. Hewitt's complaint recites that in May 1902, professing earnest love for and confidence in each other, she and Mrs. Robbins signed what is really a marriage contract as follows:

"We do hereby solemnly covenant and agree, each with the other, to take each other for better or worse, to love, honor and cherish through joy or sorrow, weal or woe, until death does us part, God being our witness, for in Him we trust."

The complaint avers that in May, 1905, Mrs. Robbins not only broke the contract by marrying a man, but is trying to evict plaintiff from their home, in which plaintiff claims a fourth-fifths interest.

Driven to Suicide.

Alarmed by receipt of a letter upon which was drawn a skull and crossbones, Howard Owen, a prominent business man of Vienna, Ga., went to his home yesterday morning and shot himself through the heart upon his bed. He had been married just one month. His wife, hearing the report of the pistol, ran in and threw a bucket of water on him to quench the fire which was burning his clothing. Mr. Owen was held up two nights ago and robbed. Yesterday morning he found his pistol, which the robbers had taken from him, under his doorstep. After going to his place of business he found in the mail the skull and crossbones letter with the words, "Prepare to meet Thy God." Owen immediately went home and killed himself.

Expect to Finish Dam December 10.

Work on the big dam for the Winchester and Washington Electric Railway Company at Millville is being rapidly pushed. Over two hundred feet of the concrete work is completed. The frame work in which the concrete is to be formed now extends to swift water well out into the river. A tramway from trucks conveying supplies from the mixing machine to point where the concrete is needed has been built on top of the frame work. With favorable weather, the contractors expect to have the dam finished by December 10th.—[Winchester Star.

Short-Lived Battleships.

One of the officers of the Washington navy yard has figured out that the life of a modern steel battleship is less than half of that of her wooden prototype—the man-of-war of a previous generation. He said the old wooden frigate was good for forty years of crusing, while the steel vessel of Uncle Sam's superb twentieth century navy reaches the junk pile in less than twenty years.

This week Richmond will be given over to the Virginia division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, who will hold for the first time their annual convention in Richmond. Beginning with an informal reception on Thursday evening, the convention will continue until Saturday evening.

Mayor H. C. Burgess, of Strasburg, has served notice on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad that if the company does not take steps to run its trains into that town, instead of stopping at Strasburg junction, by the time the town council holds its regular meeting, legal steps will be taken immediately to compel it to comply with the terms of its charter, which requires trains to be run into the town.

Young Husband's Crime.

Washington J. Quiggle, twenty-four years old, secretary to Thomas F. Walsh, of Washington, shot his wife and himself about 12:40 o'clock this morning in their bedroom at the Brunswick apartment house on I street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets northwest. Quiggle died on the way to the Emergency Hospital, and his wife, Hattie Quiggle, twenty-five years of age, who was also taken to the Emergency, is believed by the physicians to be fatally wounded.

According to the night clerk at the apartment house, Mr. and Mrs. Quiggle had been out during the evening and did not go to their rooms until late. About an hour after their return Mrs. Wilcox, from whom they rented their rooms, on the eighth floor, was startled by the report of the revolver shots coming from the Quiggle apartment. She hurried to the door and found it locked. She then summoned the clerk, who opened the door and found Mr. Quiggle lying motionless on the floor near the foot of the bed and Mrs. Quiggle staggering about the room. Mrs. Quiggle told them that her husband had shot her and continued to stagger about the room, crying. "I don't want to die."

Mr. Quiggle was born and reared in Ouray, Colo., and was working as an insurance agent when he was taken into the employ of Mr. Walsh, about a year and a half ago, and went to Washington as the latter's secretary.

Mrs Quiggle was formerly employed at the Willard Hotel, it is said, as a chambermaid, and last spring was engaged as a parlor maid by Mrs. Walsh, and accompanied the family to Newport, R. I.

It was during a business trip to Newport last June that they met. He made several other visits to Newport during the summer, but any attention on his part toward the young woman was not noticeable by the Walsh family. They were secretly married in September, but it became known only recently.

At the Brunswick nothing was known of the causes that led up to the tragedy or the circumstances surrounding it.

The body of Quiggle was found on the floor at the foot of the bed in a large pool of blood, he having shot himself with the last ball in the revolver. The couple had retired for the night. Their clothing was arranged in order and the bed had been occupied. The appearance of the room bears testimony to the fact that there was an effort on the part of the unfortunate woman to escape from her husband.

Two shots were found in the wall and another bullet had crashed through the door into the hall at just about the height where one of the shots that struck Mrs. Quiggle took effect.

On the door post were the distinct marks of a bloody hand, where the woman had stood for a moment to support herself while she turned the key that gave her freedom from the man who must have been pursuing her. The police found two of the bullets.

Today's Telegraphic News

TODAY'S ELECTION.

VIRGINIA.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Voting is slow in the city. At the precincts, where over six hundred votes were registered, up to 1 p. m. only 175 votes had been polled. This is a fair average of what is going on all over the city, and while democrats do not seem alarmed, they are doing all in their power to get votes out in the afternoon. Only one city officer (the sergeant) has opposition. A great many people are failing to scratch this part of the ticket. So far as can be learned the election is passing off without accident in the State. A light vote is being polled.

Richmond, Va., Nov.—Although the republicans have been active in Virginia for several months past and have nominated a full State ticket, the election throughout the Old Dominion, today, is a very quiet one, and a comparatively small vote will be polled. No far-reaching issues are involved in the fight and the contest during the campaign was devoid of novelty. Even the most conservative predict that the democrats will easily elect their ticket and three-fourths of the Legislature. A regular thing about the election is the negroes who have been disgruntled by the lilywhite tendencies of the republicans are keeping away from the polls. In Richmond, up to noon, hardly a hundred colored votes had been cast, and these were mostly at one or two precincts. At some precincts not a single colored man has appeared. As there are over 25,000 registered negro voters in Virginia, even under the new constitution, this state of affairs is most unusual. Weather all over the State is clear.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 7.—The interest in the mayoralty fight and William Travers Jerome for re-election to the office of District Attorney caused Father Knickerbocker to tumble out of bed early this morning and hustle to the polls. It was an ideal election day, and indications at 10 o'clock were that the full registered vote would be brought out. The polls opened promptly at 6 o'clock, and will close at five o'clock this evening

In many places a record vote was polled in the first few minutes. Several arrests were made for illegal voting, during the morning, and there were several assault cases.

The early voting was remarkably free from election disorder, despite the bitterness of the campaign.

There was little betting this morning on the result of the election. McClellan remained the favorite at 2 to 1, and 10 to 7, while Jerome was a 2 to 1 choice over his opponent, James W. Osborne.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Two murders already committed, and two hundred prisoners landed in city hall cells and kept incommunicado is the early morning beginning of what promises to be the stormiest and bloodiest election day known in Philadelphia. Assuming that Sheriff Miles would swear in hundreds of special deputies, Mayor Weaver last night took entire charge of the police department and swore in nearly 2,000 special policemen, arming them with clubs. All information regarding the murders and the arrests of the numerous persons is denied at the City Hall, and it is understood that no information will be given out there or any person allowed to see or communicate with them until after the polls are closed tonight. The present outlook is that the vote will be an unusually heavy one, and that the organization majority will be greatly depleted even if it is not entirely wiped out.

Harbormaster Samuel G. Maloney, Magistrate James Fealey, and ex-Lieutenant of Police James Carey, leaders of the republican forces, in the Fifth ward, have been arrested. Where they have been taken their friends have been unable to find out and the police will give out no information.

So far, about a dozen polling places have been closed and the election officers have appealed to the courts for protection. In one polling place, the voting booths were wrecked. All of the disorder is occurring in the wards where the organization is conceded to be in the majority. Judge Bregy has requested director Potter to keep the police out of the polling places.

A reign of terror prevails in the Fifth ward, and even the election officers are scared out of their wits. There now seems little doubt that, owing to the close of so many polling places, the election will be thrown into the courts, for final settlement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—An ideal fall election day and the bitterness of the contests is bringing out an early and large vote in Pittsburg, Allegheny, and the surrounding boroughs. As a result of alleged fraudulent voting of a man in the polling place of the First district of the Fifth ward shortly after 10 o'clock, a small riot took place immediately in front of the Allegheny county jail, in which the polling place is located, during the progress of which a shot was fired by one of the combatants and it is miraculous that no person was killed or seriously injured. As a result of the trouble county Detective Murren, who is thought to have fired the shot, was arrested and locked up in the police station. He was later released on bail. Murren was leading his prisoner away when a grand rush was made, to release him. County Detectives McMillen and Merritt came to Murren's assistance and a lively scrimmage resulted. More than a thousand people were attracted to the scene.

MARYLAND

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—An unusually heavy negro and foreign vote was polled early this morning against the amendment. Republicans are claiming the city by a majority variously estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000. This majority will be vastly reduced by the fact that a large number of republicans are secretly voting for it. Should Baltimore city give a majority not over 5,000 against the amendment, the counties, where the feeling against the negro is particularly strong, will, it is believed, carry the measure.

NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—A heavy vote is being polled in Trenton today, the city and county having important offices to fill. There is no disorder thus far in any of the precincts and none is expected. Indications are that the republicans will carry their usual counties throughout the State and probably gain in two instances, so far as the election of State Senators is concerned. This will have an important bearing on the election of a United States Senator in 1907, when the term of Senator Dryden expires. The republicans are also expected to hold their present big majority in the House of Assembly and re-elect numerous city and county officers.

KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—The election in Louisville and in Kentucky is proceeding thus far without special incident, though the excitement is great and bloodshed is feared. In Louisville a bitter fight is on between the democratic party in power and the fusion elements. Between 25 and 50 of the leading business men are at the polls in every precinct to prevent corruption. Both sides claim victory. The election in the state centers on the Senatorial fight between Senator Blackburn and Judge Paynter, with the latter the favorite.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Massachusetts voters today cast their ballots for State officers and both the republican and democratic leaders are confident of victory. It is predicted that a large vote will be polled throughout the State. Charles Bartlett is the democratic candidate for Governor and Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, jr., is the republican candidate for Governor.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Voting in this city started briskly today, and it is expected that 85 per cent of the vote will be polled. Each of the two dominant parties expresses its belief in victory for its respective candidates for governor, though it is considered the result will be very close. The republican candidate for Governor is George H. Utter, who is running for re-election, and the democratic candidate is former Governor L. F. C. Garvin.

Suicide of Young Woman.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Miss Emily Ensign, of Youngstown, O., a student in the freshman class at Vassar College, was found drowned about 1:30 this morning in the lake on the college grounds by a searching party which had been organized to look for her. It is believed that homesickness caused the girl, who was 10 years old, to take her own life. In a secluded spot near the lake a book was found, inside of which was discovered Miss Ensign's open-faced gold watch. The searchers became alarmed and grappling hooks were secured, with which the lake was dragged. This resulted in bringing the body up. Miss Ensign had suffered greatly from homesickness for some time. About three weeks ago she became so lonely that her mother came on from Youngstown and stayed with her for some time, leaving about ten days ago, after pursuading the girl to remain and finish her course. It is known also that Miss Ensign had suffered a great deal from headaches of late and numerous headache powders were found in her room.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 7.—"Pray for me, mother," were the words in a letter received yesterday by Mrs. C. A. Ensign, mother of Emily Ensign, who committed suicide at Vassar College by jumping into the lake on the campus. The girl was talented, being an artist of some ability. She stood high in her classes. Her father is a well-known druggist.

Bessarabia Aflame With Anarchy.

Vienna, Nov, 7.—Advices received here from Bucharest, Roumania, state that all Bessarabia is still aflame with anarchy. Conditions are described as frightful. At Ismali, where disorders reached a climax last night, a state of siege has been declared. Today the town is reported to be in flames, and the fire brigade, instead of attempting to check the flames, is assisting the incendiaries. All the firemen are drunk. A massacre of the Jews, similar to that which has occurred at Odessa, Kishineff, and other centres, is proceeding. Last night a mob marched through the Jewish quarter killing every Jew who could be found. Today dragoons fired on the rioters killing forty two, and wounding 114. Near the railway station in Tirashol last night a band of robbers, assisted by soldiers, made an attack on a train containing fugitive Jews. All the passengers were killed. Another armed band, recruited from the ranks of butchers, is engaged in marching up and down the country murdering the people and robbing them of all their possessions. This work is continuing unchecked.

Alfonso in Berlin.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—A brilliant military pageant was arranged this morning in front of the imperial palace in the square in honor of King Alfonso of Spain, who is the guest of Kaiser William. At noon a military banquet was given. This evening a reception will be given to the members of the diplomatic corps, who will thus be given an opportunity to meet the Spanish monarch. Alfonso will dine privately with the imperial family and at night will attend a gala performance at the Royal Opera House. The efforts of German diplomats to secure King Alfonso as a matrimonial prize for some German princess are regarded here with keen interest, and the result is awaited with equal curiosity.

"I'm Not Dead," Says "Corpse"

Clifton Heights, Pa., Nov. 7.—Under the impression that her husband was dead Mrs. James Kaufman last night called in Charles B. McDonald and Thomas B. Kane, neighbors, to prepare the body for the undertaker. As they were about to disrobe the sick man the supposed corpse sat up in bed and declared that he was not dead. Kaufman has been ill for some time and is a firm believer in Christian science and divine healing. When he fell over in an apparently lifeless condition last night and was discovered by his wife to be cold and stiff, the family concluded that he was dead, and the neighbors were at once notified. He is still living.

Abolition of Exclusive Laws.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—A manifesto was issued today announcing the abolition of the exclusive laws. Details are also published regarding the plan of organization of the Douma or national assembly. The Douma will be composed of 600 members elected on a mixed basis of property qualifications, education and class representation. The rental qualification is fixed at 48 pounds. The official salary qualification in the capital is 120 pounds. There will be twenty-five labor representatives in the Douma. All holders of high school diplomas will be allowed to vote.

Died from His Injuries.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 7.—Midshipmen James R. Branch, of the second class, who was injured in a fight with Midshipman Minor Merriweather, jr., of Lafayette, La., Sunday night, and upon whose skull an operation was performed last night, died this morning at ten o'clock. His father, Col. James R. Branch, of New York, secretary of the American Banker's Association, and his mother were with him at his death, though he did not regain consciousness after the operation. He was their only son.

More Pacific Conditions.

London, Nov. 7.—Private dispatches received today by English firms contain reassuring news as to the conditions in Nikolaieff, Odessa, and other points throughout the Russian provinces.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 7.—Following the proclamation of the Czar, granting the desired reforms, the city is quiet today. The Finnish railways are operating under normal conditions. The Russian and Finnish flags are hoisted side by side over many buildings.

Passenger and Freight Train Collide.

Syracuse, N. Y. Nov. 7.—In a head on collision of a passenger and freight train on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad at Liverpool, five miles north of here, at five o'clock this morning, four were killed and several injured. The engines telescoped and the freight burst into flames. The body of one dead man was seen in the flames which enveloped the wreckage.

Thirty People Burned to Death.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The socialists have advices of a terrible outrage at Tomsk. The people were holding a meeting, at which there were three thousand in attendance. The reactionaries fired the building in an attempt to cremate the whole audience. Thirty were burned to death and seventy badly injured, but the others escaped.

The President Casts His Vote.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt came home to vote today. Secretary Loeb, who also voted in Oyster bay this morning, was registered in another precinct and cast his ballot at the "Squire's Court." The President left for Washington at 9:31 o'clock.

Suicide of a Prisoner.

Liverpool, Nov. 7.—Williams Roberts, a prisoner in jail, under remand to await hearing on the charge of having stolen 900 pounds from an aged American former named Beresford, shortly after the latter's arrival in this country, strangled himself this morning in his cell.

The Fox Hunters.

The fifth day's trial of the Grafton-Middlesex hounds yesterday proved more successful than any previous day's hunt of the match. The English hounds of the Middlesex hunt were taken out, the meet being at Middleburg at 7 o'clock.

Hounds were thrown in at Bald Hill woods, on Mr. Fred's estate, and, finding within 10 minutes, went away after a big red dog fox. For 57 minutes Reynard led the hounds and horsemen across 10 miles of hunting country.

After 10 minutes' run the fox was viewed with the hounds five miuntes behind him, but he circled back in safety and disappeared in his den on Moose creek, near Fry's dam. This is the first fox that has been properly accounted for during the match.

Five riders came to grief on the run, although no one was seriously injured. Mrs. Ladenburg, of New York, came hard to earth when her hunter crossed his legs in jumping a stone wall aslant. The others who sustained falls were Dr. Spilter, Harry Belt, Richard Lawson and J. K. Maddox.

The meet today was at Goose creek stone bridge, on Welbourne, the estate of Col. H. R. Dulany.

Children Killed by Train.

Lizzie Dolan, nine yeaas old, and Lillie Mariati, an Italian girl about the same age, were instantly killed by a Chesapeake and Ohio train while crossing a trestle over the canal, about five miles from Richmond yesterday afternoon. Mrs. John Dolan, the mother of one of the girls, and a smaller child were saved from death by leaping from the bridge into the water, which is nine feet deep at that point. Both girls were struck by the train and their bodies hurled into the canal. The skull of the Dolan girl was crushed and the legs of the Italian child were cut off and her body crushed. Mrs. Dolan, seeing the train approaching, called to the girls to jump, but they were too frightened to obey. Taking the smaller child in her arms, the woman leaped into the water. Her skirts acted as a life preserver, keeping her and the child afloat until help arrived.

Senator Gorman.

The interview with Senator Gorman published yesterday, in which the Senator replied to Governor Warfield, was another source of satisfaction to the democrats, and it was said by the managers that his presentation of the case and his answers to the objections made by Governor Warfield constituted the strongest argument yet presented from the democratic standpoint. Among the organization people it was contended that Mr. Gorman had put Governor Warfield in a position where, if this amendment is defeated, he cannot escape responsibility, and his raps at Attorney-General Bryan were also applauded by the friends of the amendment.

Had Mr. Gorman, it was claimed, had an opportunity to reply to the Governor earlier it would have been the means of making many votes for the amendment. The reply, they declare, is stronger and more effective by reason of its temperate and dignified language and style.

The senior Senator was not in the city yesterday and will not be here until after the election. As yet he has made no answer to Senator Rayner's letter extending a challenge for a joint debate, and his friends assert that his ignoring of the junior Senator is a crushing answer.—[Baltimore Sun.

Lady Florence Dixie, the poet, novelist and former war correspondent, died in Scotland.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. The Election.

The election today has been quiet throughout, and scenes around the booths afforded a marked cantrast to those of a few weeks ago when the primary election was in progress. Polls were opened at sunrise at the following places:

First ward—Elks' Hall.
Second ward—City Hotel.
Third ward—Odd Fellows' Hall.
Fourth ward—Friendship engine house.

Much apathy was shown and but little effort was made either on the part of the democratic committee or of the democratic nominees on the ticket, with few exceptions, to bring out the vote. No bookholders were employed in either of the wards and few, if any vehicles, were engaged in taking voters to the polls. The republicans worked quietly, but made some efforts to bring out their votes. A stranger in the city would hardly have known that an election was being held.

The number of votes cast up to 4 o'clock this evening were: First ward, 255; Second, 286; Third, 222; Fourth, 205; total, 968.

In the primary on October 12, at 4 o'clock 1,061 democratic votes alone, had been cast.

At 3:30 o'clock this evening a drum corps in a wagon bearing the inscription "Vote the Democratic Ticket," was driven through the streets.

A Forgotten Grave.

"Before the chill winds of November have howled over the graveyard and, perchance, sent spits of snow amid the flying leaves, let us catch a glimpse of the aspect in the glory of its October beauty. Summer still lingers amid the autumn. Even the butterflies have not gone. A hundred shades of green set themselves out before the blue of the river in the distance, while the marbles in cross and column, or the grey granites stand solemn in the green ivy. Amid such scenes and silences we come across an aged stone that has borne for ninety winters and summers the inscription: 'I H. S., in memory of James Bacon, who departed this life on January 14, 1810,' Close by him lies all that the earth holds of Jane Bacon, who died in 1807, and who seems to have been James Bacon's mother. His wife survived him. Bacon came here in 1797 from Philadelphia and carried on the grocery and liquor business in a two-story frame house at the northeast corner of King and Washington streets, the site of the present Allen pharmacy. At that time all the houses in the neighborhood were frame ones. None of them remain except the sexton's house adjoining Trinity Methodist Church. Bacon's estate, when summed up by David Black and Matthew Robinson and John Kincaid, amounted to $1,762. He was a special friend of Ignatius Junigal, the benefactor of the church, who is buried near him, and was one of the witnesses to the deed by which Libby, Sexsmith and Lanpheir conveyed the old Methodist Church on Chapel alley to Father Neale. It is a singular fact that, in the lax discipline of the times, he was a Free Mason, and, as such, attended with the Alexandria Masons the funeral of George Washington. He did not, however, belong to Alexandria-Washington Lodge, but was a member of Philadelphia Lodge, No. 7. His family removed from Alexandria soon after his death."

The Case of Richard Mills.

As was stated in the Gazette, Dr. Wm. M. Smith yesterday performed an autopsy upon the remains of Richard Mills, colored, a railroad laborer, who died at the house of Annie Brown, on north Fairfax street, late last Sunday afternoon. It was ascertained that death was caused by a bullet wound in the abdomen. The ball, which was of the .38-calibre variety, had struck the man in the back and had severed the renal artery, passing through the cavity of the abdomen and lodging in front just under the skin. About 7 o'clock Sunday morning Mills was found by the police in an unoccupied house in the northeastern section of the city. He was then recovering from a debauch. He later went to the Brown woman's house, and died while seated on a lounge. Samuel Murray, Lazarus Allen and William Frazier, who it was alleged had been with Mills previous to his death, were summoned to appear before a coroner's jury and they were later taken into custody by acting Lieutenant Roberts.

It was the intention of Dr. Purvis, the Coroner, to hold an inquest over the body at Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors at 10 o'clock this morning, and the following jurors were summoned by City Sergeant R. H. Cox: Messrs. R. M. Graham (foreman), J. Lowenbach, Thomas Chauncey, Elmer Spittle, E. Warfield, jr., and B. B. Smith. The jurors were sworn and adjourned over till 10 o'clock tomorrow, as some of them were serving today as election officers; besides some of the material witnesses were absent.

On Sunday evening a man living on Franklin street, near Alfred, caused considerable excitement by attacking his wife. The exclamations from the house drew a crowd and police whistles sounded. A telephone message was sent to the station house and Officer Young, who was on duty there, sent Officer Nicholson to the scene. By the time the latter reached the neighborhood the excitement had allayed and no arrests were made.

Fined $20 Each.

J. R. Carter and Edward Windsor were arrested yesterday by Officer Bell for carrying concealed weapons. One had a razor on his person and the other a pistol. They were brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and fined $20 each.

The buildings in the rear of the Columbia engine house are being removed preparatory to the improvements recently ordered by the City Council. Mr. J. D. Knight has the contract.

Telephone Improvements.

The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company of Virginia has virtually metamosphosed its central station and line in this city, by equipping them with an up-to-date service in every particular. Mr. Wythe White, the manager in this city, has been busy for some time in perfecting this work, and the line is now affording the utmost satisfaction to its patrons. A common battery system with a multiple switch board has been placed in position and virtually a new plant placed in the local office, with a 3.40 second service. The changes have not been perfected without great expense, but the company has not considered this feature in enlarging and materially improving the service, it having been the determination of the managers to place every modern appliance here for the convenience of Alexandria subscribers The long-distant feature is now as perfect as could be desired—in short an entire new plant has taken the place of the old in Alexandria and this city now has one of the finest exchangas to be found anywhere. The business subscriber who has heretofore had grounded circuit service at $4 per month will now receive metallic circuit service at the same rate, and the business subscriber who has been paying $5 per month for metallic circuit service will now receive the same at $4 per month, and subscribers who have been paying $3.50 for special line residence service will now receive the same at $2 50 per month. Seven operators are employed—five during the day and two at night.

Personal.

Mr. J. C. Smoot and family have returned from North Wilkesboro, N. C., where they have been since the early summer.

Mr. Frank J. Lawler and Miss Lillie M. Pettey were married last night at the parsonge of the M. P. Church by Rev. J. H. S. Ewell.

Rechabites.

A most enthusiastic meeting was held in Sarepta Hall last night by the members of Perseverance Tent No. 1098, I. O. R. Eleven candidates were admitted to membership, making a total of ninety-nine members to date. High Chief Ruler Wayne W. Cordell and a large delegation from the tents of Washington were present. The High Chief Ruler presented Chief Ruler W. L. Griffin with a gold emblem of the order suitably inscribed. Under the good of the order the following programme was rendered: Address, A. L. Thompson; solo, Mr. Chas. Bennett; address, Mr. Martin Mahoney; solo, Miss Ethel Parker; address, Lambert D. Lyles; solo, Miss Virginia Thompson. Perseverance Tent will pay a fraternal visit to Onward Tent in Washington, Wednesday night, leaving here on the 7:15 train.

Sues the Officers.

In the United States Circuit Court in Richmond yesterday H. C. Knode, of Alexandria county, instituted suit for $10,000 alleged damages against Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Joseph E Sapplee, a Justice of the Peace in that county. The suit grows out of the arrest of the plaintiff in connection with the recent pool-room matters in Alexandria county. It will be remembered that when Mr. Mackey made the raid on J. C. Nelson poolrooms, Knode was arrested with others on the charge of vagrancy. Knode disclaimed being a vagrant; and now sues for damages for his arrest on such a charge.

Confederate Veterans.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night, Lieutentant Commander W. H. May, presiding. A special committee to whom was assigned the duty of preparing a roster of the camp to be printed in pamphlet form, reported through its chairman, Comrade Jno. S. Blackburn, its work performed. Several other committees made their reports of a private nature. A report of the proceedings of the Grand Camp which was held at Petersburg last month, was made by one of the delegates.

Police Court.

A number of persons, mostly negroes, male and female, were arrested yesterday charged with various misdemeanors. Some had fines imposed upon them in the Police Court this morning, and others were dismissed. As was stated yesterday, Samuel Murray, Lazarus Allen and William Frazier, all colored, were arrested yesterday by acting Lieutenant Roberts on suspicion of shooting Richard Mills. A number of others suspected of knowing something about the shooting of Mills were taken in custody last night, and they will be held for the Coroner's jury.

Death of Mr. Finn.

Mr. M. J. Finn, of Burke's station, whose criticial illness has been mentioned in the Gazette, died last night. The deceased was a member of Alexandria Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians. That order will hold a meeting tonight for the purpose of taking action in regard to his death

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Jennie, the little daughter of Lewis B. Monroe, is ill with tonsilitis at her parents home 215 south Lee street.

This being election day, the saloons were presumably closed, but the side doors were conveniently open.

The alarm of fire between 6 and 7 o'clock last night was caused by a burning chimney on Queen street, between Fayette and Payne.

Co-Operative Charities.

The Co-operative Charities met in Lee Camp Hall on Tuesday, October 31, and in reviewing the year's work, saw many places where improvement could be made. The subject of the winter's work was discussed and a more determined effort was decided upon to prevent the imposition and annoyance of house to house begging. We ask our citizens, as we have many times before, to refer such cases to this association. The subject of help or servant was presented. There is rarely a day that some one of these ladies are not asked by housekeepers to secure for them a cook or washer-woman. This seems to be a question which is hard to solve. This organization will help any one to secure a home, and endeavors to secure work for those who want it. It has also been determined that where there are persons that ask for assistance who are able to work they must do so, as there are opportunities on every hand to earn a living. The funds placed in the hands of the Co-operative Charities by our citizens are for the poor and does not include the indolent. We would like also to state for the benefit of some of our friends that the work done by the association does not come under the corporation work; it is a separate and distinct organization; to help the whites only. The appropriation given by the City Council goes to a committee from the Co-operative Charities, known as the relief committee, who dispense the funds to both white and colored after satisfying themselves that they are worthy. (All are visited alike, white as well as colored, before assistance is given.) The assistance given by the city will furnished as usual from the relief room in the City Hall Building. A detailed report from the Co-operative Charities will be given at a later date.

Two Dyspeptics
If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.
Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.
Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure
contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.
Digests What You Eat
Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Will Defy Injunction.

John C. Harding sounded the keynote of the striking printers at another injunction demonstration Sunday in a North Side hall in Chicago when he declared that the "union could not and would not obey" the restraining order issued by Judge Holdom in favor of the employers. Remedies for curbing court authority were offered, but Mr. Harding's solution met with most favor from the audience

More than 1,000 members of Typographical Union No. 16 and other trade unionists gathered to discuss the injunction questions.

"Judge Holdom has granted an injunction," said Mr. Harding, "which it is absolutely impossible to obey. It is so broad and sweeping that I believe even the judge himself realizes that he has gone too far. But we stand on our rights. We know what our rights are, and we intend to maintain them no matter what the result may be.

"This strike," he continued, "will be a long one, but we intend to carry on a plain, straight-forward fight to the finish and we hope eventually to establish the eight-hour day in the printing shops in Chicago."

The resolution passed ran as follows:

Resolved, That for the preservation of the rights of the people it has become imperatively necessary that steps should be taken to limit the power of judges, lest by precedents and forms of law every innocent act be made criminal and punished as such at the pleasure of any court which can be so persuaded.

Greece and Roumania.

An open break between Greece and Roumania will, according to private information received in Washington, soon make the dangerous situation in the Balkans still more complicated. Last month Greece recalled its diplomatic representative from Bucharest, and Roumania was thereby forced to withdraw her minister from Athens.

The immediate cause of the breach was the fact that the Sultan recognized the independence of the Koetso-Wallachs, a people living near the Greek border in Macedonia, who number perhaps 100,000. They belong to the Roumanian race, but were claimed by the Greeks to be under the command of the Greek patriarch in Constantinople. Accordingly, bands were formed on the Greek frontier, and expeditions sent among the Koetso-Wallachs to force the latter to acknowledge themselves to be Greeks and to register that way during the census then being taken in the Ottoman empire. The Sultan did not interfere, and the Koetso-Wallachs were forced to ask for the help of Roumania. That country, desiring to be represented in any future partition of Macedonia, gave its help, and its intervention led to the present situation.

As it is not possible for the two countries to attack each other, either on land or sea, the only damage they can inflict to each other, it is stated, would be through an economic war, in which, according to statistics, Roumania would have the advantage.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
